Library materials delivered to your doorstep!

The Randall Library wants to know if you are interested in receiving FREE Randall Library materials delivered to your door! Books, CDs, movies, and more, all brought to you!

Please take our survey to tell us a little bit about yourself and answer a few questions?

Paper copies are available at the Randall Library and the COA.

If you have questions or need help in filling out the survey, please call the Randall Library at (978) 897-8572.

The survey will be available until March 31

Homebound Delivery Service is available to anyone who is unable to visit the Library due to a variety of reasons including but not limited to short or long term illness or lack of transportation. The service is supported by Randall Library Staff, Friends of the Randall Library, and volunteers.

The Doorstep Delivery Program is sponsored by a grant from the Library Technology and Services Act (LSTA) from the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners (MBLC)

We look forward to serving you at home!
